DEZJORN

ENTREPRENEUR, INFLUENCER, MODEL

Dezjorn Gauthier, J.M. resides in Muskego, WI, USA. Graduated from Marquette University in 2013 with a degree in Criminology, Law Studies and Sociology. He also holds a paralegal diploma, apart of the American Bar Association and completed Washington University School of Law (2017). Dezjorn started modeling at just 6 months old for top children's brands around the nation and winning national titles. He began his physical transition (female-to-male) April 2014; shortly after he was featured in the well known Barneys New York campaign, featuring 17 transgender models. With international coverage Dezjorn has been featured in many articles and celebrity shoots, including walking the all transgender runway cast for high fashion designer Marco Marco & International campaign with British Vogue. Dezjorn was featured in the award winning series America In Transition by Andre Perez, and was managed by the world's first transgender-specific agency in New York. Additionally, Dezjorn was crowned Mr. Wisconsin; being the first title holder of color and of trans-masculine experience for Enchantment US Pageantry System.

Aside from modeling and furthering his education, Dezjorn started his own philanthropic business in 2014 providing programs and services to effectively bring awareness to the transgender community with a special focus on transmen of color through education, empowerment and inspiration. Today, Dezjorn International LLC is compiled of subsidiaries, and committed to help clients reach their goals of branding, public relations and social media influence, including GVII Talent Management and Black T Magazine; the world's first African American trans-culture magazine. In 2018 Dezjorn and his wife officially opened their nonprofit The Dezjorn International Foundation Inc; which hosts an annual transgender surgery fund, academic scholarships, athletics, and mentoring. Dezjorn also is the Director of Youth Engagement for the Gendercool Project and was Vice President of Point of Pride. Back in Milwaukee Dezjorn teaches a high school level law course allowing students to learn more about the justice system, United States constitution and understand policies. As well as is a licensed foster parent with Froedert Children's Hospital.
